

.creditunion Privacy Policy

DotCooperation LLC (DCLLC) respects your privacy and wants to assure you that the information that you have entrusted to us is only used as described in this privacy policy and through your registration agreement with DCLLC and your .creditunion accredited registrar. This Privacy Policy describes:

- the personal data items that DCLLC collects and maintains;
- how this data is collected; why this data is collected;
- who may be provided this personal data and why;
- how to access your data and how to limit use of your data.

Please note that this site contains links to other sites on the Internet. DCLLC is not responsible for privacy policies on these other sites. Please be cautious about providing personal data at any site.

Information Required for Domain Name Registration

DCLLC is the ICANN-accredited operator of the .creditunion top-level domain (TLD). As such, DCLLC accepts domain name registrations only from ICANN-accredited registrars that have their own privacy policies.

DCLLC information pertaining to domain name registrations is typically maintained by the registrant through their .coop registrar. Registrars submit this data electronically to the DCLLC registry operator for maintenance. The .creditunion registry also maintains information about the verification status of each registrant which is communicated to the registrar as needed. DCLLC maintains this information solely for the purpose of verifying the registrant's eligibility and does not disclose this information.

Sharing Information Collected for Domain Name Registration

When you register a domain name through a .coop registrar, we disclose your domain name and its associated nameservers to TLD server administrators to make your address functional on the Internet. DCLLC is bound by the .creditunion registry agreement with ICANN.

As required by the .creditunion registry agreement, we may also provide access to the TLD zone files to other interested recipients, provided those recipients agree not to use the TLD zone files for purposes such as the transmission of unsolicited commercial e-mails (Appendix 3 of the ICANN agreement.)

Also, as required by the .creditunion registry agreement, we make information about domain name registrants available to the general public via domain name registration database look-up (WHOIS) services. WHOIS access is available on a query-by-query basis only. DCLLC does not provide bulk WHOIS data. Please note that registrars are also required to provide WHOIS access for all of their registrations and may have differing policies for bulk access to this information. Please review each registrar's privacy policy for information on these issues. DCLLC does not provide verification information through WHOIS.

DCLLC gathers information about all visitors collectively, such as what areas of the site users visit most frequently and what services users access most often. DCLLC automatically logs session sources, and other data which tracks users' access to this site. We analyze these logs in order to understand aggregate user behavior as well as for system performance monitoring.

These logs are analyzed for the overall, aggregate trends they reveal about our customers, not for the behaviors of individual users. We may share aggregated demographic information with our business partners and the press. This is not linked to any personal data that can identify any individual person.

Other processors (vendors, subcontractors, and other similar business partners) are responsible for processing some of the personal data that we receive on our behalf. Use of personal data by these processors is restricted to activities required to perform the delegated functions.

Security

DCLLC is very careful to protect your information. Data submitted to our web site or through our registrars is protected both online and offline. All of our users' personal data is access-restricted, and the servers on which we store personal data are kept in a secure environment.
